Homeschool Convention & Curriculum Exhibit

The Washington Homeschool Organization's 24th annual convention will be held June 19th & 20th in the Americraft ShowPlex at the Puyallup Fair & Events Center. The Washington Homeschool Convention is the largest of its kind on the West Coast, with nearly 4,000 attendees. Throughout the years, well known speakers such as Susan Wise Bauer, John Taylor Gatto, Dr. Raymond Moore, Stephan Guffanti, Tom Hoyle and Jim Weiss have drawn hundreds to our workshops. We also offer seminars on the how-to's of homeschooling, fun family activities for all ages, and unique opportunities for homeschool families to connect.

The Washington Homeschool Convention is one of the most affordable conventions in the Northwest. Many conferences charge attendees over $50 per day; some conferences are hundreds of dollars just to attend. We offer ample free parking for exhibitors & attendees, our exhibit hall provides 10x10 booths for our exhibitors, compared to many that are limited to 8x8, at an affordable price, and our early bird registration offers even better value to our exhibitors. We have special non profit rates for qualifying groups and several tables for smaller businesses. It has been a priority of the Washington Homeschool Organization (WHO) to make this convention affordable for both exhibitor and attendee.

Convention information will appear in our bi-monthly newsletter, on our web site (www.washhomeschool.org), along with radio and print media coverage. We also use local advertising and publicity channels to promote this event.

WHO works to serve the diverse interests of home-based education in Washington State. WHO is nonpartisan, nonsectarian, and non-discriminating in its views of homeschooling and participation in its activities.
